NOTICE OF DATA BREACH

Dear IDFG TEST:

ACTIVEOutdoors operates the online application you've used to apply for or purchase your state hunting or fishing license in Idaho, Oregon or Washington. We are committed to protecting your information and operating with transparency. The reason for this letter is that we were recently made aware of a potential incident that could have affected your personal information and we are writing to provide you with information regarding the incident, steps we have taken since discovering the incident, and information on what you can do.

What Happened? Although we have made and continue to make significant investments in technology and security, on August 22, we became aware that we were the victim of an unauthorized and unlawful access to our online hunting and fishing licensing applications in Idaho, Oregon and Washington.

What Information Was Involved? After thorough investigation it has been determined that your name, address, date of birth, driver's license number with physical description information, and full Social Security number may have been subject to unauthorized access. No credit card information or financial information was involved. At this time, ACTIVEOutdoors is not aware of any fraud associated with this incident. The threat was isolated to only our hunting and fishing online applications in the above-mentioned 3 states, and only in accounts that were created prior to July 2006 for Washington customers, and July 2007 for Idaho and Oregon customers.

What Are We Doing? Protecting customer information has been and continues to be a high priority for us. Upon learning of the unauthorized access, and consistent with our long-standing security procedures, our team took immediate

Concept of Public Trust

There are some things so valuable to all of us that they cannot be owned by any individual

In the United States, these things are:

- ❖ Air
- ❖ Fish
- ❖ Water
- ❖ Wildlife

North American Model of Wildlife Conservation

7 Sisters for Conservation

- Maintain wildlife as a public trust resource
- Prevent injurious commerce in dead wildlife products
- Allocate wildlife democratically and by law
- Ensure wildlife is used for legitimate purpose
- Preserve hunting opportunity for all
- Recognize and manage wildlife as an international resource
- Insure that science is the basis for conservation policy

Gray Wolf Recovery

In 1995, 15 wolves were trapped in Alberta, Canada and released in Central Idaho, another 14 were released in Yellowstone National Park

In 1996, 20 were trapped in Canada and released in Idaho and 17 in Yellowstone

Wolves were allowed to enter on their own from Canada into Northwest Montana

State of Idaho was not involved in recovery and state employees were not allowed to even speak about it until 2002!
