4. GETTING TO MIKULOV

Mikulov is easily reached by train, bus or car. We recommend using the Vienna International Airport if coming by airplane.

- Limited number of shuttle bus transfers will be available in peak times to take participants from/to Vienna International Airport, provided the requests for transport are timely communicated to the Secretariat of the Carpathian Convention and supplemented by travel details. A shuttle bus is planned for the morning 23 September to bring to Mikulov in time for the excursion of your choice.
- The alternative individual indirect journey by train takes 3 hours (it is necessary to change the train in Znojmo or Břeclav) – there are several departures throughout a day from the Wien – Mitte Station. Wien – Mitte Station can be reached from the Airport by the City Airport Train (CAT) in 16 minutes or by S-Bahn in 25 minutes.

For more information on how to get to Mikulov please consult the Annex – Getting to Mikulov.

5. VISITING MIKULOV AND THE SOUTH MORAVIA REGION

The venue is located at heart of the town of Mikulov from where all the significant Mikulov sights can be easily visited and admired - Svatý kopeček, Mikulov Castle, Koží hrádek, the vault of Ditrichsteins, the town square or even Jeskyně na Turoldu.
