

in cooperation with

“The Future of Mountains after Doha - will the big melt continue?”

in celebration of the

INTERNATIONAL MOUNTAIN DAY 2012

(2nd edition)

(11 December as designated by the UN General Assembly)

PROGRAMME

11 December 2012, 15.30 – 18.15 hours

Vienna International Centre, M - Building, Room M2

Time	Speaker	Title
15.30	Mr. Harald Egerer, Coordinator, Interim Secretariat of the Carpathian Convention (ISCC) Head, UNEP Vienna Office	Welcome Speech
15.45 – 18.15	PRESENTATIONS FOLLOWED BY
	PANEL DISCUSSION – Moderator: Mr. Janos Tisovszky, Director, UNIS Vienna
	Ms. Elfriede-Anna More, Director, Department for International Environmental Affairs, Federal Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry, the Environment and Water Management	Climate change in the global context – Report of the outcomes of UNFCCC COP18
	Prof. Helga Kromp-Kolb, BOKU University of Natural Resources and Applied Life Sciences and Mr. Markus Leitner, Environment Agency Austria (Umweltbundesamt)	Mountains as early indicators of climate change – perspectives from the Alps
	Ms. Elisabeth Sötz, Environment and Natural Resources, Austrian Development Agency (ADA)	The need for climate change adaptation
	Mr. Paribesh Pradhan, Project manager, “the great Himalaya trail”	Community-based adaptation to climate change in the HKH
	Mr. Sándor Szalai, Coordinator, “CARPATCLIM” project	Climate change and adaptation in the Carpathians

Supporting Partners:

Austrian Development Cooperation

lebensministerium.at umweltbundesamt^U

