

Carpathian Convention Working Group on Sustainable Tourism

Update from the Czech Republic on the implementation of the Protocol on Sustainable Tourism

15 April 2021

Sustainable Tourism in the Carpathians in the Czech Republic

- 2015
- Ministry of Regional Development, Institute for Spatial Development
- Identification and evaluation of suitable conditions for further development of sustainable tourism while considering the cultural and natural potential of the region

Roundtables of the Carpathian Convention

- Since 2006
- Organised for the Carpathian Convention stakeholders active in the Czech part of the region
- Seek to share information and enhance cooperation among governmental, non-governmental, academic, and private sector at national, regional, and local levels
- Key topics discussed include sustainable tourism (in relation to local identity, nature conservation, interpretation of cultural heritage, etc.)

European Cultural Route of Saints Cyril and Methodius

- Connects significant places presenting the still relevant legacy of Saints Cyril and Methodius through a varied cultural-educational programme and pilgrimage tourism. Emphasis is placed on strengthening the regional development and the European cultural identity of the involved territories.
- Under evaluation for certification as Cultural Route of the Council of Europe
- More information: <http://www.cyril-methodius.eu/en/>

Signposted Trails of Cyril and Methodius Route

 131 km Pustevny - Velehrad Trail of Cyril and Methodius Route connects three tourist and nature areas Beskids, Hostýn hills and Chřiby with three significant pilgrimage places Radhošť, Holy Hostýn, Velehrad. More information	 100 km Vranov - Velehrad The Pilgrimage trail of Cyril and Methodius Route connects two important pilgrimage sites - Křtiny and Velehrad. Partially, the trail passes along the St. James way in the Czech Republic More information	 62 km Skalka nad Vahom - Velehrad The Pilgrimage Trail of the Cyril and Methodius Route connects two important pilgrimage sites, Skalka nad Vahom in Slovakia and Velehrad in Moravia (Czech Republic). More information
--	---	---