

BEYOND THE CARPATHIAN HORIZON

Development vision of the Carpathian Euroregion

till 2020

Carpathian Euroregion – Vision till 2020

Carpathian Euroregion +

Common social-economic sphere using internal Carpathian potentials and broad territorial partnership of public, private and non-governmental sector entities for international development cooperation for enhancement of life quality of their residents.

Carpathian Euroregion – territory/ social-economic potential

156 000 sq km about 15 000 000 residents 20 years experience Conditions for good cooperation: geographic, economic, political

Carpathian Euroregion – organization

The Carpathian Euroregion Association Poland since 2001 60 territorial self-government entity (JST) members Over 300 co-founded projects About 1000 institutional stakeholders

Carpathian Euroregion – network cooperation structures

karpackie forum organizacji pozarządowych

Carpathian Regional Development Agency Carpathian Forum of Non-Governmental Organizations

Carpathian Euroregion – Strategy Carpathian Horizon 2020

Main objective : social-economic development of the Carpathian Euroregion Innovative/competing region with high economic potential Region with high social and human wealth Well-balanced region Region with strong institutional connections

Carpathian Euroregion – Carpathian brand

Carpathian Euroregion – Alpine – Carpathian Cooperation Forum

Three scopes of topics:

- 1. Development issues of mountain regions
- 2. Development issues of borderlands
- 3. Polish-Swiss cooperation

Carpathian Euroregion – Action Plan

Directions of strategic actions till 2020:

- 1. Partnership reinforcement within Euroregion structures (specialization + Euroregion+ rule)
- 2. Updating of the strategy "Carpathian Horizon 2020" and its links to the other strategic documents
- 3. Cost-effectiveness of Euroregional actions
- 4. Close cooperation as part of the Carpathian Convention
- 5. Support for the European and Global connections of the Carpathian region

Thank you,

Dawid Lasek

MOTTO: Tout bien ou rien (Everything or nothing)

